

AIESEC held a forum on 22nd May, 2017 at the Gandhi Wing Grounds to mark the AIESEC week. The forum showcased the various products the club offers and how the products create an impact in our society. It was also a forum to introduce FLIT (Financial Literacy and Information Technology) forum. FLIT will be a 2-day conference open to a delegation of students from all Universities in Nairobi. During the forum, students will be provided with guidance and advice on financial sustainability through technology.
