

Placement Office offers the following services:

1. Organizes careers fairs and talks.
2. Participates in exhibitions in the University and with students organizations.
3. Maintains Curriculum Vitae`s data bank for the graduates and continuing students
4. Provides career guidance and counselling.
5. Maintains linkages with industrial partners who offer internship and employment opportunities to graduates and students of the University of Nairobi.
6. Posts available jobs on notice boards and our University website for students information.
7. Issues recommendation letters to organizations for students looking for employment and internship opportunities.