

SONU REFORMS PROPOSAL

The senate proposed to have the Students Organization at the University of Nairobi, SONU to be reformed in a meeting held on April 27th, 2016. The proposed changes include:

- (i) Put a term limit for executive positions so that many students get opportunity to lead.
- (ii) Reduce stakes involved or benefits to office bearers so as to reduce tension between the winning and losing candidates.
- (iii) Review the sources of finances to SONU and regulate the level of campaign expenses.
- (iv) Reduce the role of incumbent office bearers in the management of electoral process.
- (v) Introduce minimum qualifications for candidates in order to promote leadership with good academic and moral standing.
- (vi) Review the voting and tallying process.
- (vii) Review membership and membership fees.

The objective of the proposal is to make the student organization geared towards accountability and meeting the student needs and the University community.
