

TOP PERFORMERS AWARDED AT UON PRIZE GIVING CEREMONY

419 students who performed exemplary in the academic year 2013/2014 and 2014/2015 were rewarded at this year's UON prize giving ceremony. The former students were drawn across the 6 colleges.

Speaking during the ceremony, the Chancellor Dr. Vijoo Rattansi noted that rewarding excellent performance encourages students to continue to pursue their education.

On his part the Vice Chancellor Prof. Mbithi urged more companies to come forward to support the development of human resource potential in the country by supporting academic endeavors. He also noted that students are encouraged to perform better when they are rewarded. The VC also thanked the stakeholders who came forward to support the event in form of cash donations, trophy's and medals.

The event took place on Fri 27th April 2018 at Taifa hall. It was supported by several companies including crown paints Kenindia Insurance, Knight Frank, PriceWaterHouseCoopers among others.
