

The University of Nairobi offers needy students opportunities to work within departments, units and the students welfare authority to raise funds for subsistence during the course of their study. The services are coordinated by the Dean of Students Office in conjunction with the Special Student Advisor and are available to all bonafide students who are on session.

For more information on work study programmes ,Email dean-students@uonbi.ac.ke