'Supporting UoN Needy Students'

BACKGROUND

The University of Nairobi is a public Institution with over 50,000 students, majority of whom are Government sponsored and from diverse backgrounds. Among them, are students from very humble backgrounds who require regular support to enable them pursue and complete their Education. The University has been supporting her needy students through the Office of the Dean of Students in collaboration with other partners.

The University of Nairobi Senate at its Meeting held on January 14, 2022 resolved to hold an Annual UoN Compassion Day to consolidate efforts and activities aimed at meeting challenges facing the most disadvantaged members of the students' community.

The inaugural University of Nairobi Compassion day was held on December 7, 2022 with the aim of mobilizing staff, students and partners to support our needy students with in cash and in kind resources.
